AVIATION GROUND HANDLING AWARDED QANTASLINK GROUND HANDLING SERVICES CONTRACT IN WHYALLA

Aviation Ground Handling (AVGH) is pleased to announce the company has been awarded the Ground Handling contract to provide services to QantasLink at Whyalla Airport.

AVGH commenced operations at Whyalla Airport today, providing a full range of ground support services to QantasLink on their Dash 8-300 aircraft servicing 13 flights per week between Adelaide and Whyalla.

AVGH Chief Operating Officer Craig Shaw said the addition of the Whyalla-based contract expands AVGH's presence into another State and South Australia's third most populous city.

"This agreement with QantasLink further strengthens our partnership with the airline and allows us to employ six staff at Whyalla Airport," said Mr Shaw.

"We are delighted to win this business and grow AVGH's presence through this additional contract," Mr Shaw said.

Aviation Ground Handling is a leading aircraft ground handling company operating in Australia with local operations at Gold Coast, Townsville, Rockhampton, Mackay, Sunshine Coast, Miles, Brisbane, Roma and now Whyalla airports.

Aviation Ground Handling is a Queensland Airports Limited (QAL) company and directly employs over 200 staff based across the current port locations.
